

Easy Checklist - How To Spot Water Damage On Your Car

| Check for water stains |   | Look for signs of rust |                       |
|------------------------|---|------------------------|-----------------------|
|                        | Carpets   |                        | Brake parts           |
|                        | Seats   |                        | Suspension components |
|                        | Door interiors  |                        | Steering components   |
|                        | Exterior of the vehicle                                   |                        | Frame                 |
|                        | Arrange a seating chart                                   |                        | Bolts and screws      |
|                        |   |                        | Clips                 |
|                        |   |                        | Brackets              |
|                        | Check for any unusual or unpleasant smells inside the car |                        |                       |
|                        | Check for electrical system damage                        |                        |                       |
| Look for signs of mold |   |                        |                       |
|                        | Carpets   | NOT                    | ES:                   |
|                        | Carpet mats   |                        |                       |
|                        | Fabric seats  |                        |                       |
|                        |   |                        |                       |
|                        |   |                        |                       |
|                        |   |                        |                       |
|                        |   |                        |                       |
|                        | - L   |                        |                       |